"The Brownfields Transaction Forum was the most productive two hours I spent at Brownfields 2006. I learned about many attractive sites which I otherwise would not have had access to, and I established relationships with brokers and property sellers having an extensive supply of available properties. My company is pursuing several potential acquisitions as a result of the Brownfields Transaction Forum."

"The 2006 Brownfields Transaction Forum was very beneficial to the City of Buffalo. It gave us a forum to present some of the City's potential brownfield development opportunities to regional and national developers. Buffalo is leading the way in brownfield redevelopment in Upstate New York and we look forward to showcasing our recent successes and landing new projects at the 2008 Brownfields Transaction Forum in Detroit."
