

Michigan Association of Planning's Green Communities™ Workshop

green is the new gold.

Be a big fish in your own pond and make money turning green into gold.

The development of green, affordable housing can be good for business. And we'll show you how at a free workshop that includes dinner on us. If you want to build what people will buy, this is your chance to learn what consumers are willing to pay for.*

C'mon. Have dinner on us. You'll discover that what's good for the earth and the people on it really can turn green into gold.
