Role and Responsibilities

SEMCOG is seeking an organized and detailed Planner to join the Transportation Planning and Programming team. The Planner will lead in the development of plans through research, data analysis, and policy development; complete tasks associated with the receipt of federal aid to the region; and provide technical assistance to member communities. Will lead in transit planning, corridor planning, and the federal Congestion Mitigation and Air Quality (CMAQ) and Carbon Reduction Programs (CRP). Will also provide assistance on a variety of functions and programs including congestion management, mobility, freight, safety and policy development and implementation of the Transportation Improvement Program (TIP) and Regional Transportation Plan (RTP). Attends virtual and in-person local meetings with members and partners regarding transportation and infrastructure planning. Leads in the development and dissemination of materials to convey SEMCOG information internally and externally, and in presenting data and information to various stakeholder groups.

The successful candidate will have an understanding of transportation planning; excellent quantitative skills needed for technical analysis; well-developed organization and time management skills to ensure timely completion and delivery of work; be detailed, self-motivated, and capable of working on multiple tasks; excellent interpersonal and communication skills to interact and work with a range of external stakeholders such as federal, state, county, and local road and transit agencies; and ability to work cooperatively and collaboratively with internal staff and external partners, including MDOT and local transportation providers and departments. Candidates should demonstrate a strong work ethic and comfort in working both independently and within teams. This position is part of a job series and offers employee development and promotional opportunities.

Experience and Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university in Planning, Engineering, Business, or a related field is required.
- Five (5) to seven (7) years' experience of increasing responsibility in related areas.
- Previous experience working with transportation planning documents, metropolitan transportation plans. GIS experience and knowledge of ESRI products desirable.
- Experience in assisting or managing some or part of the development, monitoring, and implementation of projects across multiple stakeholder groups.
- Working experience with FHWA, FTA, MDOT and Local Government agencies, partners, private sector, and/or regional leaders.
- Effective written, verbal, and presentation skills required, including a working knowledge of Microsoft Office suite (Word, Excel, and PowerPoint).
- Support and promote a strong internal culture based on SEMCOG core values and Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion initiatives.

SEMCOG reserves the right to waive any of the minimum qualifications for applicants whose general or specific qualifications would otherwise qualify the applicant for the position or lead SEMCOG to believe that the applicant is capable of performing the assigned duties and fulfilling the assigned responsibilities.

Total Compensation Estimate = $142,894*

In addition to annual base salary, SEMCOG offers a valuable mix of health and fringe benefits! Here's an estimate of Total Compensation, including salary and benefits, for the Planner III position. On average, employee benefits account for 47% of Total Compensation.

About SEMCOG

SEMCOG is a voluntary association of local governments fostering cooperative efforts in order to move the region forward. Since its inception in 1968, SEMCOG has acted as a regional planning partner with local governments in the seven-county Southeast Michigan region, which is made up of Livingston, Macomb, Monroe, Oakland, St. Clair, Washtenaw, and Wayne Counties. Membership is open to all counties, cities, villages, townships, intermediate school districts, and community colleges.

SEMCOG is committed to building a staff team that represents the rich diversity of the Southeast Michigan region. As a result, we place an emphasis on diversity, equity, and inclusion in our work, as well as our internal culture. SEMCOG's core values below are the basis of our workplace culture and how we perform our work.

- Visionary – We work holistically, inspiring innovative regional and local solution.
- Collaborative and Inclusive – We are respectful, approachable, and embrace different perspectives to meet the diverse needs of our region.
- Strategic – We are intentional, yet flexible in order to leverage opportunities
- Integrity – We are committed to the ethical and honest stewardship of our fiscal, natural, and built resources.
- Knowledgeable – We strive for excellence through sound data and research and continuous learning, ensuring we are a credible and influential voice for Southeast Michigan
- SEMCOG promotes a positive, fun, flexible, and inclusive workplace that encourages staff to celebrate what makes them unique while learning about the things that they share. We accomplish by asking questions engaging in areas of work that are aligned with our interests. SEMCOG understands the importance of work/life balance, offering the flexibility our staff needs to accommodate their personal needs. SEMCOG values the importance of continuing education and encourages staff to seek opportunities for personal and professional growth.

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Statement of Principle

We are better together

At SEMCOG, we embrace and celebrate the collective sum of our unique experiences, knowledge and talents, innovation, and self-expression, which strengthens our organization. We all have a role to play in cultivating and preserving a place of belonging. We at SEMCOG define diversity as the presence of differences across a wide range of backgrounds, identities, experiences, and viewpoints. To us, equity means fair, just and impartial treatment, opportunity, access, and engagement for all. We see inclusion as an environment that values, respects, and welcomes all perspectives, especially ensuring underrepresented groups are included. Together, it is our goal to promote a culture of diversity, equity, and inclusion to fulfill our mission and achieve our vision for a connected, thriving Southeast Michigan.

Acquiring Talent

I understand that by completing this application there is no guarantee of a job interview or a job offer. No promises regarding employment have been made to me and I understand that no such promise or guarantee is binding upon SEMCOG. I also understand that nothing in this employment application, in SEMCOG’s statements, policies, or Employee Handbook, or in my communications with any official or representative is intended to create an employment contract between SEMCOG and me. I also understand that if an employment relationship is established, I have a right to terminate my employment at any time. I also understand that SEMCOG retains the right to terminate my employment at any time, as applicable under law. Further, I understand that SEMCOG has the right to modify its policies without giving me any notice of the change(s).

I hereby authorize SEMCOG to verify all the information I have provided on my application. I also agree to execute, as a condition of employment or continued employment, any additional written authorizations necessary for SEMCOG to obtain access to and copies of records pertaining to this information. I expressly authorize SEMCOG to contact any of my current or prior employers, educational institutions, and other references I have provided, and release all of those employers, educational institutions, references and SEMCOG from any and all liability arising from their giving information about my employment, academic, and/or military experience. I also hereby waive any right under the Bullard-Plawecki Right to Know Act, 1978 PA 397, to receive written notice from SEMCOG or any former or current employer, that a disciplinary report, letter of reprimand, or other disciplinary action taken against me while employed, will be or has been disclosed to a third person or entity.

I agree not to commence any action or suit relating to my employment with SEMCOG more than 180 days after the occurrence of the facts giving rise to the claim, or more than 180 days of the date of my termination of such employment, whichever is earlier, and to waive any statute of limitations to the contrary.

If I am employed, I understand that additional personal data will be required for determination of benefit eligibility and for statistical purposes.

I will abide by all policies, rules and regulations of the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments.

SEMCOG is an equal opportunity employer and complies with all applicable federal, state, and local fair employment practices and laws. SEMCOG prohibits discrimination and harassment of any type and affords equal employment opportunities to employees, applicants, or any other covered persons without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, height, weight, marital status, pregnancy, age, national origin, disability status, genetic information, protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law.
