

BREAKFAST, BEVERAGES & BRIGHT IDEAS

Traverse City, Michigan | Wednesday, October 18, 2017

6:00 - 7:00 PM -- Presentation and Discussion

7:00 PM -- After-Glow

Join us to hear Jamie and Andrew Kidwell-Brix's journey from urban planning to brewing beer "with a sense of place." Located in the Village of Grand Traverse Commons, a (re) development site, Earthen Ales provides a unique setting to hear how urbanity and brewing are about connections to places, experiences, and people. One AICP CM credit for this event

What is BBB?

The Michigan Association of Planning (MAP) is bringing BBB to northern Michigan!

Launched in Metro Detroit 5 years ago, MAP is expanding this successful event series to bring informal educational programming and networking opportunities to our members and friends in northern Michigan.

From South Haven, Holland and Muskegon to Kalamazoo, Grand Rapids and Battle Creek (and everything in between!) look for events including walking tours, breakfast panels, brown bag lunches and "Planners' Night Out" networking events at local watering holes. The events will cover planning and development initiatives in your communities, highlighting your innovative planning work. The BBB series is designed to energize and inspire in a fun and informal fashion.
